Dear Mr. Hanson:

In accordance with our telephone conversation of this morning there is enclosed for your information copies of my letters to Mrs. Stang and the Firm of Keim and Scotch, concerning claims for damages arising out of accidents with Government vehicles under control of this Agency.

I would like to request that in the event of claims arising in the future, involving vehicles of this Agency, that may be addressed to your office, the correspondence be forwarded directly to me, without acknowledgement, so that this office may maintain control of correspondence from the outset.

Sincerely yours,
